

Ken Runion Responds to Republican Negative Attacks

Ken Runion has placed a number of web sites on the web. During February of 2009, Warren Redlich and Mark Grimm took the identity of Ken Runion and started a web site in his name, with his picture, and containing misleading information to "fool" web surfers into believing this was an official web site of Ken Runion.

At a Guilderland Town Board meeting, Warren Redlich explained that he did this because he thought Ken Runion would be the leading political opponent in the 2009 Town elections. Mark Grimm added that he saw nothing morally or ethically wrong in taking Ken Runion's name and picture and establishing a negative and derogatory web site about him.

The official web site of Ken Runion is www.therealkenrunion.com . Ken Runion has also established several news and information web sites. They can be found by looking at the web links page on this site. Ken Runion is the Supervisor of the Town of Guilderland and he has also developed a web site to provide information to town residents concerning Town Board activities. That website can be located by clicking here
